

SOCIETY'S MIRROR

BY IDA MYNDERS

ANNOUNCEMENTS

MANY CHARMING AFFAIRS GIVEN FOR MISS WILLINGHAM.

Prominent among the first June brides of 1919, will be Miss Phoebe Willingham, the attractive daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. G. Willingham, whose marriage to Capt. Everett Richard Cook on the evening of Wednesday, June 4, will be an event of wide interest in social circles in Tennessee.

The first of a series of beautiful pre-nuptial affairs in honor of the lovely young bride-elect was the bridge-luncheon given Thursday by Miss Elizabeth Tschudy, at Ellendale.

The guest list for the affair included 12 intimate friends of the young honoree and her hostess.

Friday afternoon Mrs. George Welles, a sister of Miss Willingham, will entertain in her honor with a bridge party at her home.

For Saturday evening an attractive dinner-dance is being planned by Mr. and Mrs. Cecil M. Norfleet, and will be given at the Memphis Country club.

Sunday evening Mrs. J. H. Barnwell, Jr., will give a dinner party at Ellendale in honor of Capt. Cook and his bride.

Miss Lucille Warwick will be the hostess for Monday evening, when she will entertain at the Memphis Country club with a dinner-dance in their honor.

A beautifully planned luncheon, to be followed by a dancing party, will be tendered the young couple Tuesday by Mr. and Mrs. Frank Pidgeon.

The last affair before the wedding will be the dinner-dance Tuesday evening, which will be given by J. T. Willingham, an uncle of the bride-elect, at Neshoba.

The wedding, which will take place at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. G. Willingham, Wednesday evening at 8 o'clock, will be a beautiful one, although quietly solemnized.

Miss Willingham is one of the most popular of Memphis' young society leaders, and her marriage to Capt. Cook, who is an American aviator with distinguished honors, will be of interest throughout the state.

Parke-Buzard.

Mr. and Mrs. Samuel S. Parke have issued handsomely engraved invitations to the marriage of their daughter, Lenore Rice, to Mr. Thomas Virgil Buzard, the wedding to take place on Thursday evening, June 12, at the McLemore Avenue Christian church.

Following the ceremony a reception will be held at the home of the bride's parents, 488 Laclede avenue.

Mrs. Rockwood Entertains.
Among the popular society leaders who are entertaining this week is Mrs. S. C. Rockwood, whose luncheon Friday at her home, Baidaur, will be a small but beautiful one.

About 24 guests will enjoy Mrs. Rockwood's hospitality.

Girls' Vacation Camp at Hardy, Ark., Is Open Only to Workers

The girls' vacation camp at Hardy, Ark., will open for its fourth season of camp activities July 1. Improvements are now under way to add to the comfort of the girls and make the camp even more attractive than it has been.

The Indian name for the camp is "Miramichie," which in plain English means "Happy Resting Place." and if you want a real vacation for your body and mind, if you enjoy wholesome, well-cooked food, if you like to hike, to swim, to paddle your own canoe (figuratively speaking, for it will not be a canoe at all, but a flat-bottom boat that will not turn over), if a bacon-bat appeals to you, or a marsh-mallow roast, dancing, impromptu shows, moonlight singings, and everything an inventive mind can conceive to add to the joy of a regular vacation—well, Miramichie is waiting for you.

The fact that any girl who is employed is enabled to get the sort of vacation she really needs and wants is due to the original idea of Camp Miramichie by Mrs. Arthur Kraus, formerly Miss Sophie Marks, of Memphis, with the assistance of Miss Clara Hershey and Mrs. W. A. Jones, formerly Miss Wharton-Jones, and the financial backing so generously given by the business men of Memphis, who realize that this is a paying investment, for in two short weeks one can store away an enormous amount of vitality and energy, which means increased efficiency for coming days.

In order to be eligible to join the camp, a girl must be employed. The camp was established for the business women of Memphis, and during the past three years has entertained hosts of girls from office, factory, school, and store, and the enthusiasm and loyalty of the girls who have been over one of the camp's best assets. The post-office series at Hardy could also vouch who are entertaining this week is Mrs. S. C. Rockwood, whose luncheon Friday at her home, Baidaur, will be a small but beautiful one.

About 24 guests will enjoy Mrs. Rockwood's hospitality.

Younger Set Entertains.

With the return of the many attractive girls who have laid aside the cares and problems of college life the younger set are planning an unprecedented social affair, which will start on Thursday evening with a dancing party by Miss Louise LeMaster, while another on the social calendar will be the lovely dinner given by Miss Peggy Adams on Monday evening, June 3, at her home, 1678 Overton Park avenue.

Miss Adams' guest list includes 100 members of the younger society set.

ENTERTAINMENTS

Miss Collins Honoree.

Mrs. O. F. Wohlraht and Mrs. C. B. Shangle are entertaining Thursday afternoon with a miscellaneous shower at their home, 1819 Union avenue, in honor of an attractive bride-elect, Miss Mary Elizabeth Collins, whose marriage to Mr. Samuel Earle Hicks will take place Monday evening.

The house is artistically decorated with roses and sweet peas. During the afternoon a lovely ice course will be served to the 40 guests who will enjoy the hospitality of the gracious hostesses.

CLUBDOM

FINAL-BEETHOVEN CONCERT BRILLIANT

The final concert of the Beethoven club for the season, 1918-1919, will take place at the Goodwyn institute Saturday afternoon, at 3 o'clock.

For this occasion, one of the most beautiful programs of the year has been arranged by the chairman, Mrs. David L. Griffith, and Mrs. J. F. Hill, president of the club.

Mrs. Hill will make a report of the year's work, which has been a most successful one from every viewpoint, and will outline a few features which the club intends to present to the public next fall.

Hostesses for the afternoon will be Mrs. Frank Fisher, Ivy Bennett, M. G. Buckingham, Eugene Hazelhurst, George Dunbar, Robert L. Brown and Mrs. Hill.

A feature of special interest on the delightful program for the occasion, will be the song, "Witchery," the music and lyrics of which was written by Mrs. Frank Sturm, a member of the club, and one of Memphis' most charming musicians. It will be rendered by Mrs. J. G. Bailey. Mrs. Sturm has written a number of beautiful compositions, especially appropriate for the concert stage, which are to be published in the near future.

WHAT IT DOES

Sews all day for less than 3 cents' worth of current. No treadle pushing—no tired feet—no backache.

Sews anything from fine, light georgette crepe to heavy quilting without requiring regulation of tension.

Makes dresses, aprons, dainty waists. You can put it away on a closet shelf. No bigger than a traveling bag and as easily carried.

HOW IT WORKS

Attaches to any lamp socket. A slight pressure on the foot control, it sews slowly—press harder, it sews faster—gives you a stitch at a time or 800 a minute—starts or stops instantly. Come in and see it operate and compare it with the old-style treadle machine.
